ABOUT US

We invest towards every employee reaching their potential. We offer opportunities throughout our North American and offshore offices that help shape our world's future in technology... our history proves it. To name a few, we helped pioneer geographical navigation systems, cellular phone technology and helpdesk support service models that thrive in our lives today.

At Solugenix, we're all about people who enjoy learning and working in a collaborative environment, take pride in their work and are dedicated to doing what's right for our clients, colleagues and our organization. Solugenix offers employees opportunities for intrapreneurship giving employees a chance to let their ideas be heard. Our employees truly have a voice within our organization to make a difference and are empowered to further their careers.
